Magee Charges Heydler With Misstatements

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 31.—Lee Magee, professional baseball player, in a signed statement issued today, said President John Heydler of the National league makes "a wilful misstatement" when he says that charges against the magnates have not been filed by Magee. Magee demands that if Heydler has any complaint against him, charges be preferred.

Magee's statement follows:

"I am a professional ball player and depend upon my salary for a living for myself and my family.

"You have barred me from major league ball without any charges against me and without granting a hearing.

"I demand that if you have any complaint against me that you prefer charges in the manner provided by your constitution and afford me an opportunity to defend myself under the method therein contained.

"When you say that I have not filed with you written charges against the magnates you make a wilful misstatement."

UNION PACIFIC TRAIN ARRIVES DECORATED WITH ICICLES

Union Pacific train which arrived in Ogden this morning were festooned with icicles which had formed between Granger, Wyo., and Ogden. The train crew reported that one of the worst blizzards of the season is now raging in Wyoming and that the temperature has been flirting with the zero mark throughout the night.

None of the morning trains were delayed, but opinions that afternoon trains from the east might be late was expressed by several railroad officials.

Colonel C. A. Black, right-of-way agent for the Union Pacific, stated that this winter has been one of the most severe that has been experienced on the Union Pacific mountain division for several years.

H. C. Bell, superintendent of the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company, said that this winter rivalled that of 1917, when rotary snow plows were ordered out of Green River, Wyo., on May 1 to clear the right-of-way of snowdrifts.

GYMNASIUM AT ELKS CLUB BOOMED AT CELEBRATION

Having featured the payment of the last indebtedness against the lodge by a brilliant celebration last evening, members of Ogden lodge No. 719 B. P. O. Elks, today were discussing what new worlds should be conquered and the general impression prevails that the lodge soon will order the construction of a combination gymnasium and bachelor apartment building on the site in the immediate rear of the Elks club.

When the last bond was burned last night to the accompaniment of loud cheering, the Ogden Elks had completed the payment of nearly $70,000 in eight years. This was two years less than the time promised to those who bought the bonds. In view of this financial achievement it was the sense of the Elks that the lodge should undertake another great project and the gymnasium and bachelor apartment plan seems to be meeting with the greatest favor.

Dr. R. S. Joyce, the first exalted ruler of Ogden lodge, presided at the "old timers" session. Among the Elks who spoke were: The Rev. John Edward Carver, Mayor Frank Francis, T. C. Foley, Exalted Ruler Miller of Salt Lake lodge, Judge John C. Tobin of Salt Lake, W. G. Wilson, the Rev. John W. Hyslop and C. A. Boyd.

Music was furnished by the Ariel quartet of Salt Lake. A surprising feature was provided by a group of pretty young women of the Pitt Puff Puff production.

Excellent refreshments were served following the "old timers" session. Salt Lake Elks came to Ogden for the occasion in a special Bamberger train chartered for the occasion.

TO ENTERTAIN AT CARDS AND MUSIC.

Perseverance lodge, No. 98, Locomotive Firemen and Engineemen, are to entertain the members of their families and friends at the Eagles' hall next Tuesday evening, when they will give a card party and musical. Refreshments will be served.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound

CLEAR THE THROAT of phlegm and mucus, stops that tickling, opens the air passages for easier breathing and coats the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing medicine. Grateful Father Tells What It Did. W. E. Curry, 130 Up 6th St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have a little girl 6 years who has a good deal of trouble with croup. I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, giving it to her according to directions, and obtaining instant relief for her. My wife and I use it whenever bothered with a bad cold or cough, and I will say that it is the best remedy for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble or croup that I ever saw."

Parents who use Foley's Honey and Tar know it is safe and no harm will come even if an overdose should be given by accident. It tastes good and children like it. It won't upset the delicate stomachs of young children, delicate persons or elderly people.—A. R. McIntyre Drug Co.—Advertisement.

UTAH AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE FACULTY APPOINTED

The board of trustees of the Utah Agricultural college held its annual spring business meeting Saturday, March 27, in the church office building, Salt Lake City, at which the faculty appointments were made for 1920-21.

An important change in the faculty is caused through the resignation of Prof. John T. Caine III, who for the past four years has been director of the extension division, previous to which he was professor of animal husbandry and animal husbandmen in the extension division. Professor Caine is entering the commercial field, in the employ of the Utah Condensed Milk company. He leaves the college after a period of most excellent service with many friends all over the state. He stands very high in the country sections in his chosen field of work—animal husbandry. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Entrance Fee Raised.

The board of trustees raised the college entrance fee from $5.00 to $10, in order to meet in part the very great increase in the cost of maintenance. The student body fee was also raised from $5.00 to $10 upon joint recommendation of faculty and students, and the entrance fee for summer school students was increased from $6 to $10. The increase in the student body fee was necessary if the very high standard of student activities was to be maintained.

President Peterson, in reporting to the board the general condition of the college, commented very favorably upon the clean, healthy spirit of the student body. "The students have especially honored the college through the cleanliness, the high quality and sportsmanship which has characterized the student activities," said President Peterson. "Instead of injuring the good name of the college through rowdiness and general disorder they have taken every care to safeguard the honor and dignity of the institution."

Financial Condition.

The general financial condition of the college was carefully gone over by the board. The institution, caring as it is for many more students than ever before in its history, is forced to economize in order to care for this enrollment and perform its other functions in an extension and experimental way. The board accepted, subject to minor adjustments, the new agricultural engineering building from the contractor.

The financial report indicated that the earnings of the college during the period of the war under the contract with the U. S. war department for the training of soldiers was in the neighborhood of $70,000, which the war department allowed to be applied in part upon new buildings and equipment. It is probable that few institutions in America profited so extensively as the college in this work. Government reports especially commend the wise use of these funds.

College Growing Rapidly.

The college, it was reported, is passing now through the most vigorous period of growth in its history, in student enrollment, in buildings and equipment, and in general support throughout the state. Over 10,000 students and parents are being met in organized instruction throughout the state, including all extension classes and project workers.

President's Report.

President Peterson reported the prospects for 1920-21 as follows: "The prospects for the coming year are exceedingly bright. Interest in the college everywhere in the state is keen. The fruits of Utah Agricultural college training in salaries, honorable positions and leadership wherever
